SCOTCH AMAZONS.

The Uig Women Defend their Homes Successfully.

London St. James Gazette: Nearly the whole male population of Lewis being absent from home at the herring fishing on the east coast the Uig tacksmen arranged to take possession of the disputed Uig Islands, which the crofters maintain to be theirs. Accordingly there was a general gathering of tacksmen, ground officers, gillies and shepherds from the surrounding district last week for this purpose. The crofters' wives and daughters having been made aware of the invasion held a council of war, and determined to resist the invaders at all hazards, both on sea and land. A large fleet of sailing boats was accordingly got ready, and when the tacksmen hove in sight the women were ready for action, each being armed with a stout stick and a lapful of stones. A fight commenced about a mile from land which lasted for fully four hours, and after a hot and well contested battle the women came off victorious and drove the tacksmen off without being permitted to land their sheep, and only five head of cattle were landed out of several score. The women then held a council of war and determined to keep sentry on the islands until the return of the men from the fishings. Several of the women were injured, though not seriously. Great excitement prevails in Uig.

High Play in London.

An American friend asked me the other day what was considered high play in London, says Smalley in a London letter to the New York Tribune. I put the question to an English friend whose authority is unimpeachable. "Well," he answered, "it is a little difficult to say what would be considered high, it depends so much on where you play. But the highest I have lately heard of was at the Turf club—pony points and a monkey on the rubber." A pony being £25 and a monkey £500, this meant that each of four players might win or lose, on a rubber of eight points, the respectable sum of £700 or $3500. A rubber of two treules may easily be played in ten minutes or less, so that it may be safe to describe play where you can win or lose over $20,000 an hour as tolerably high. It would be wrong to infer that stakes of this amount are frequent at the Turf club or anywhere else. The comment of another friend on this story is significant. "Men who played for such sums as that are sure to have been bad players." And he thought the average would not exceed $10 points, with $25 on the rub. It is said of an exalted personage that he does not care to set down to whist for less than $25 points—in fact there are persons who impute to him the prevailing taste for high play. The Turf club is one of the "smartest" in London. At other clubs of high standing, the usual rate is 10 shillings ($2.50); and £2 ($10) on the rubber. But there are always men who will accommodate a player who likes the excitement of risking larger sums.

George Eliot.

The following pen portrait of "George Eliot," by Mrs. John Lillie, may have interest for those who have not found the engraved portraits of the author of "Middle March," very satisfactory: A large woman, apparently about forty-five years of age, with wonderfully sweet eyes, a massive brow, soft chestnut hair, and features irregular and somewhat masculine, but fairly illumined by an expression of intelligence and peculiarly sympathetic sweetness. She was richly dressed with some disregard to the details of fashion, but with an air of dignified splendor in the materials, as well as in the cut of her gown and cloak, in the shape of her hat, and even in the exquisite and rare old lace which fell about her neck and wrists. I thought her the most striking person I had ever seen. Yet, who could describe that inspired look when she spoke, or give the peculiar charm of her deep, melancholy eyes, in which sometimes her rare sweet smile lingered, deepening the kindly look, yet never banishing that curious pathetic expression.

Standard Car Load.

Ten years ago a standard carload on all first-class railroads was 20,000 pounds, the weight of the cars being 20,000 pounds. In 1881 the load on most roads had increased to 40,000, but the weight of the car had increased to only 22,000 pounds. The master carbuilders of the Pennsylvania Road have now adopted cars to carry 60,000 pounds, while the weight of the cars will be very little increased. Instead of hauling more than one pound of car to one pound freight nearly three pounds of freight can now be hauled for one pound of car. The substitution of steel for iron rails has made the change possible.

Mr. George Radd, of Guelph, Ontario, the noted breeder of Devon cattle died suddenly of heart disease in that city, a few days ago.

Minneapolis flour mills turned out 5,450,162 barrels of flour during the year ended September 1, an increase of 652,823 barrels over the product of the preceding year. During the year Minneapolis received 32,112,840 bushels of wheat. Receipts have exactly doubled in three years.

It is now announced as an accomplished fact that at a cabinet meeting held in Ottawa on the 19th inst., the details for the transfer of the North Shore St. Lawrence railway to the Canadian Pacific railway were completed.

Mr. W. R. Allan, son of Mr. Andrew Allan, Montreal, has been admitted a partner in the Winnipeg firm of MacArthur, Boyle & Campbell, Winnipeg, Lord George Campbell having retired. The style will hereafter be MacArthur, Boyle & Allan.

Beecher already has repudiated the Democratic party. He is out in support of the Republican ticket in New York. But Beecher's boy was appointed collector at Port Townsend in payment for the father's services to the Democratic party last year. Now, since the father has gone back on the Democratic party, will a Democratic President "bounce" the boy?

The Montreal Herald is glad to be able to announce that tenders will be immediately invited for the construction for a steel and iron bridge to cross the St. Lawrence between the city and Lachine, in connection with the Canadian Pacific railway system. This will give Montreal another outlet to the south and will do much to increase her trade. The fitting out materials for the construction during the present winter, will afford employment which will be acceptable to our working classes.

FOURTH LETTER.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—The following is a true copy of the famous Clinton "order," to which I referred in closing my last letter:

(COPY.)

In the County Court of Cariboo holden at Richfield, between J. R. Sterling, plaintiff and Angelo Pendola, J. B. Nason, Hugh Watt and James Stone, defendants.

This action coming on this day at Clinton to be further heard pursuant to adjournment.

Upon the application of the plaintiff and it appearing from the evidence given herein that the evidence hereinafter mentioned is material and necessary for the proper trial of this action.

It is ordered that the parties to this action and each of them be at liberty to prove by affidavit or affidavits—the writing or documents referred to in the said evidence heretofore given herein of such of them as either of the said parties may be advised.

And it is further ordered that Charles Wilson, of Victoria, barrister-at-law, a witness on behalf of plaintiff, be examined viva voce on oath or affirmation before the registrar or acting registrar of the county court of Victoria, who is hereby appointed special examiner for that purpose, and authorized to take such examination, the plaintiff's solicitor giving to the defendants one month's notice, in writing, of the time and place where the examination is to be held after the service upon them of this order.

And it is further ordered that the said affidavit or affidavits, and the said examination so taken, be filed in the office of the court at Clinton; and that the same may be received and read as evidence herein, saving all just exceptions, and that the costs of this application and of all proceedings thereunder be costs in the cause.

Dated at Clinton the 4th day of Oct., 1884.

(Signed) ELI HARRISON, JR., County Court Judge.

Endorsed on the "order" was the following notice: (COPY.)

Take notice that the examination of Charles Wilson, under the within order, will take place at the office of the registrar of the county court of Victoria, at Victoria, on Friday, the 21st day of November, 1884, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Dated 4th Oct, 1884.

J. R. STERLING, Plaintiff within named.

To the defendant within named.

Before commenting on this extraordinary order and noting the subsequent progress of the action, I wish to call attention to a little piece of by-play indulged in by the plaintiff just previous to his departure from Barkerville. Having determined to establish the righteousness of his cause by process of law, and having begun action to that end, and while that action was still pending and undecided, it is naturally to be presumed that a plaintiff, conscious of right, would have been satisfied to await the decision of the court, and would have done nothing to prejudice his case at law, or in the eyes of the community. Not so, the plaintiff in this case, however. A day or two before leaving town he began to collect such subscriptions as he was able on the list already mentioned. His success was not very striking, but he managed to secure $30 from Mr. Nason, who has his receipt therefore. Now this proceeding would be inexplicable in a plaintiff who had confidence in his cause and in the court; but it would be very easy to understand it on a contrary supposition. It might have been a case of grab what you can and go. And indeed I have been gravely told by certain of his friends that he had legal advice to warrant him in this course. I can't believe it. It is inconceivable that any trained professional man, scrupulous of his own and his client's honor, would advise him to an act which in reality amounted to an abandonment of his suit—if not to a punishable contempt of court (not surely deserved?) For here we have a sum of money which it is claimed is a debt owing the plaintiff by certain persons who are sued therefor, and a certain subscription list is brought to court as evidence of the intention of the defendants to pay the alleged debt; but before the decision of the court has been given and while the subscription list is still in possession of the court, the claimant goes to certain persons—not the defendants—whose names he learns are on the list, and tries and succeeds in collecting a sum of money, giving therefor a receipt as part payment of the debt for which he has sued the defendants! I leave each reader according to his temper to characterize this conduct as it deserves. But it will naturally be expected that having obtained this money the plaintiff took the first opportunity to inform the court of the fact so that the amount received might be deducted from the amount claimed; or that the judge on learning (as he did learn) what had been done, either ordered the instant dismissal of the suit or at the very least gave credit for the amount thus collected when rendering judgment. But, no! Here then is another opportunity for the use of vehement language from which I refrain. It is a commonly received impression among ordinary folks that our courts have been constituted by the people for their benefit and advantage and not to provide an easy and comfortable livelihood for otherwise superfluous nobodies; that our judges are after all but servants of the governing people—the real source of power; appointed to administrate justice between man and man—to encourage the right and redress wrong, but by right methods; and it is a mistaken idea of the usefulness of courts to hold that all litigants must be made tributary to a privileged profession and that no justice can be secured except through it. I yield to no one in my regard for the legal profession, but my theory of its relation to society is that it came into existence for the benefit of litigants and not that litigants were created for the personal and pecuniary advantage of the profession. But let us suppose that a court, say in London for instance, in the 17th century, instead of rendering prompt judgment in a simple suit adjourned it to a place ove 200 miles from the seat of trial and expected the litigants to employ lawyers to argue for its satisfaction certain legal points thought to be involved in the case, but which in reality were not so involved, and then re-opened the case for evidence from one side but not from the other, would not the great O. Cromwell or the more fastidious Lord Dundreary have said to that court: "Go to, let uth have Bwitith fuih play." H. WATT, M. D.

[The correspondence on this question is too lengthy. We take the liberty of cutting this one in two, and will give the other half to-morrow. Correspondents will please not be so long winded—ED. TIMES.]

ACROSS THE OCEAN.

The Turkish Army's Condition.

Special to The Times.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—A dispatch from Constantinople, received this afternoon, says that considerable consternation prevails in official circles over an important discovery just made by Alibi Salmb Pasha, the new Minister of War. Immediately on being in his position Alibi Salmb Pasha ordered all the various department commanders to report the strength of their respective commands, and their present condition, and detailed several officers to inspect the various posts. Their reports have been received and show that under Glazi Osman Pasha, late Minister of War, who was dismissed on September 25th, that the army was almost entirely neglected, and large sums of money, which were voted for military purposes, were used in other ways than those for which they were meant. Inquiry has revealed that at Adrianople the army, which was supposed to be 15,000 contains not half that number, the soldiers have no uniforms, and are shoeless, the cavalry is unable to march, owing to lack of horses, and 20,000 men, who have been fully equipped, are under orders to march at an hour's notice.

The Subject of Metallism.

Special to The Times.

BERLIN, Sept. 30.—The Central Union German manufacturers, representing the leaders of the protection party, have petitioned Prince Bismarck, asking him to inquire into the subject of metallism. The petition is the outcome of the visit of Manton Marble, American delegate, who was sent abroad to inquire into the silver question. Mr. Marble left here in consequence of orders from President Cleveland, to make a report by the time Congress opens. Mr. Marble's task is to obtain the opinions of most of the diplomatic and financial officials on the repeal or continuance of the Bland bill. He has obtained from the German bankers approval of the idea of a monetary conference. It is thought, however, the success of such conference would depend largely upon England, and that she would do so is considered doubtful.

Active War Preparations.

Special to The Times.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 30.—Indications to-day point to active war preparations by the Porte. Eighty battalions of first-class reserves are being mobilized in the districts bordering on the Black Sea, at points which will facilitate the transport of troops for action in Roumelia, in the event of the Sultan being compelled to adopt extreme measures to settle the Roumelian difficulty. The transportation department is actively engaged in furnishing the means for the concentration of troops at the most available points for an advance on Roumelia.

The Newmarket Handicap.

Special to The Times.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—The October meeting of the Newmarket great handicap was won by Jane, Hopscotch second, Slowwick third. There were eight starters.

Flood in India.

CALCUTTA, Sept. 30.—The victims of the flood at False Point number 300. Many vessels were wrecked there.

"PUT UP YOUR HANDS."

Two Masked Men do Bloody Work on Green River.

Between 11 and 12 o'clock Saturday night John Grum, proprietor of a saloon and eating house at the headquarters of the Northern Pacific railroad, on Green river, about four miles from Franklin, was playing cards in his saloon with Sam Appleton, a butcher. There were five other men in the saloon at the time. Two masked men entered and quietly said: "Put up your hands." Nothing was thought of the injunction as it was thought a joke, when suddenly both men began firing. One shot struck Grum, passing through his body, perforating the right lung and the upper lobe of the liver. The other shot just grazed Appleton's nose, and lodged in the wall. At last accounts the man was very low, though there are some hopes of his recovery. About $250 was taken from the wounded man's person.

The "Swag" Recovered.

Officer Sheppard this afternoon secured the balance of the goods taken last night from Mr. Morton's store. One of the thieves gave a parcel to a half-breed boy named Miller, which contained 33 pocket knives, 8 gold pencils, 3 purses, 2 magnifying glasses and a quantity of other stuff, valued at $18. These were left in the boy's charge until called for; but the officer got on the track and made him give them up. All the goods taken are now believed to have been recovered.

Getting Afraid.

Speaking of the anti-Chinese riots in Wyoming, the Winnipeg News remarks; It will be Canada's turn next. The Pacific coast is now swarming with Chinese, and thousands are at work on the British Columbia sections of the railway. Hitherto the Rocky Mountains have prevented their march eastward, but in a few weeks the C. P. R. will be opened to Port Moody and the Dominion will be brought face to face with the same problem that now perplexes our neighbors.

Chinaman Arrested.

A Chinaman, supposed to be implicated with the recent stabbing and robbery case, was arrested on suspicion by Constable Kier at Chemainus, and brought down on the Amelia yesterday. He is now in jail. Very little money was found on his person when arrested.

Aquatics

It is now stated in London that Beach, the champion sculler, intends leaving Australia early next year on a visit to England. He is willing to row Wallace Ross on the Thames championship course for any sum ranging from £20 to £1000 a side; after which he will be willing to meet Teemer, Hanlan, or any other sculler who is anxious to put his strength against him.

GENERAL DESPATCHES.

Montreal's Disgrace.

Special to The Times.

MONTREAL, Sept. 30.—Only two small disturbances occurred last night, one at Great Mummery, and the other at Champ de Mars. Police had received information that the mob would assemble at the latter place, and a strong force was on hand. On hearing this the unruly crowd was quickly dispersed. Everthing is quiet this morning. The large force of militia called out has evidently had a good effect. No further serious trouble is anticipated. Public feeling is completely aroused by the conduct of the rioters, and the police are denounced on all sides for their seeming want of courage. The authorities are resolved to carry out the health laws vigorously, and will take whatever steps are necessary for that purpose.

A Building Collapsed.

Special to The Times.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—A four story brick building in the rear of 126 and 128 South Clark street, collapsed at 2.30 o'clock this morning. The basement was used as the working part of a bakery, and several employees engaged there had narrow escapes. Loss estimated at $50,000. The supports throughout the entire building were wooden, and it was ascertained the collapse was caused by dry rot in the timbers. It had given no evidence of its weakness until its collapse.

Lunatic Asylum Burned.

Special to The Times.

HELENA, Mont. Sept. 30.—A special from Warm Springs says one of the buildings of the insane asylum was burned yesterday, and three inmates perished in the flames. It is not known how the fire originated.

Thieving Indians.

Special to The Times.

OMAHA, Neb. Sept. 30.—Information has been received at the military headquarters that 200 of Piegan Indians have left their reservation in the far Northwest, and are on a thieving expedition in Southern Montana, about twenty miles from Fort Smith.

Would not Accept his Resignation.

Special to The Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The president to-day sent for Dr. Hamilton, Surgeon of the Marine Hospital Service, and informed him that he thought the best interests of that service would be served by making no changes in its chief aid; therefore he had decided not to accept his resignation, which had been tendered to take effect on October 31.

Fire in Minneapolis.

Special to The Times.

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 30.—The fire late last night destroyed one third of the large tenement block on Court Place, 15th street, and portion of Neill's tenement row on the opposite side of the street. Seven families are rendered homeless. Loss, $50,000; partially insured.

Fire in Cincinnati.

Special to The Times.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 30.—A six story brick building at Pace and Commerce streets, used as a trunk and box factory by Mendel & Rosenberger, was burned this morning; loss $45,000. One hundred and twenty employees are out of work.

Still Reducing the Debt.

Special to The Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—It is estimated there has been a decrease of about $12,000,000 in the public debt during the month of September. Payments were made on account of pensions during the month for about four millions.

Appointment.

Special to The Times.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 30.—The President to-day appointed Dudley O. Watson collector of customs for the District of Michigan.

A Meteoric Shower.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 28.—A series of explosions Saturday afternoon, supposed to have been caused by a shock of earthquake, are now thought to have been the explosion of a meteor. Inquiries have been sent to the city from points thirty to forty miles distant asking the cause of the explosion. There were five or six detonations in rapid succession and the course of the sound was from northwest to southwest. At Mansfield, about five miles distant, the greatest consternation prevailed, particularly among miners at work in coal pits in that district. Thus far the place where the meteor fell has not been discovered.

Hero Worshippers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—More than 25,000 persons visited Grant's tomb yesterday, going in a continuous stream. There were large numbers of strangers. A policeman on duty said: "I have not seen inside of the tomb since August, and that was when we took the faded flowers out. When we opened the door and threw the flowers out they had hardly touched the ground when they were snatched up by visitors. Perhaps the tomb might be opened if some one had some nice, fresh flowers to leave here."

Trying Power of Prayer.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—A cablegram says: Cardinal Manning has issued a circular, which was read in all the churches and chapels in the diocese, calling attention to the Pope's encyclical letter, setting apart October as a solemn month of prayer. The subjects mentioned in the letter as requiring the prayers of the faithful for their removal are recent attacks upon the power and dignity of the church and the cholera pestilence in Spain and Italy.

A Disgraceful Prosecution.

MONTREAL, Sept. 23.—The trial of Shepherd, of the Toronto News, for criminally libelling the Sixty-ninth Regiment was concluded to-day, the jury returning a verdict of "Guilty of publishing the libel without knowing it to be false." The defendant was fined $200. As he was leaving the building Lieutenant Normandeau, 86th Battalion, who accompanied the 65th to the front as an attached officer, forced his way through the crowd and attempted to strike Sheppard with a whip. Sheppard parried the blow with his umbrella and Normandeau followed him up, when he drew a revolver. At this juncture Major Dugas seized Normandeau and forced him away, while Capt. Giroux, of the 65th, connected Sheppard to put the revolver in his pocket, which he did. Two policemen present arrested Sheppard for carrying a revolver and hurried him to the Central Police Station, and then before Magistrate Desnoyres, who, considering the circumstances, dismissed him and allowed him to keep his revolver. A howling mob followed the party from the court to the Central Police Station.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

CHICAGO newspapers boast that over 720 miles of electric light wires are laid under the streets of the city.

IT is estimated that MR. J. W. MACKAY would not have to spend more than $1,000,000 to buy up a majority of Nevada's voters.

San Francisco oysters, which are brought from Shoal Water bay, Wash., and fattened in the San Bruno beds of San Francisco bay, represent a capital of $500,000 invested by four firms.

IT is understood in Bavaria that KING LUDWIG is hopelessly insane. The Bavarian landtag will settle the king's big debts, and hereafter take control of the finances of the royal household.

MR. D. B. WOODWORTH, M. P., for Nova Scotia, has purchased the mineral springs at the foot of the Rocky mountains and, will establish a summer hotel there near the line of the Canadian Pacific railway.

A BAR of gold weighing 87 lbs. 10½ oz., and valued at $20,618, was taken to the bank in Halifax. It was the product of a fourteen day's crushing at the New Albion mines at Montague, N.S.

NOT more than twelve years ago the foreign exports of Japan were only $5,000,000 which is about one-seventh of what they are now. After twelve years of intercourse with the great leading trade countries of the world, the exports of Japan now amounts to $38,000,000.

SWINE in South Essex, Ont., are dying by hundreds daily of a disease which is stated by a veterinary surgeon from London to be lung fever, but which PROF. GREENSIDES, of the Ontario Agricultural College, declares to be pure hog cholera of a very virulent type.

MRS. J. C. AYER, of New York, has offered PIERRE LORILLARD $375,000 for his magnificent country seat near Newport, R. I. PIERRE, however, want $425,000, and MRS. LORILLARD does not want him to sell the place at all.

THE MARQUIS OF LORNE and PRINCESS LOUISE are the guests of the composer BLUMENTHAL at his home in Switzerland. Excursions to various points of interests, improvised concerts and fetes are provided for the entertainment of the guests.

WHILE the Knights of Labor have made several formal demands on the Union Pacific, chief among which is the dismissal of all Chinese employes of the road, it seems to be the general impression at Omaha that a refusal by the company would not result in a general strike. The Knights themselves have no particular cause for complaint against the Union Pacific, and the cool-headed amongst them wisely hesitate before plunging into a long and serious fight.

AN UGLY race feeling has been engendered in the province of Quebec by the abuse heaped by the English journals upon Canadian Frenchmen who refuse to be vaccinated. There has never, since the English conquest, existed much love among the French population for the English, for obvious reasons; and the criticisms of the newspapers upon the habits of the former have kindled the fires of sectionalism and racial antipathy to a white heat. A large factor of this growing discontent has been the conviction of RIEL; but the government is evidently about to retreat on that point, and it is possible that RIEL may escape the gallows for political reasons.

QUEEN VICTORIA seems to have become decidedly cranky on the subject of her view seat in Lowe's wolfpen. She has gartered him, ordered an imperial salute to be fired in his honor, and she now makes him a commandant in the British navy, over the heads of experienced graybeards who must be inwardly boiling with indignation at the extraordinary favors shown the insignificant little chip from the Battenberg block. There seems to be a dash of spite in all her Battenberg promotions. She knows that PRINCE HENRY is disliked by the members of her own family, and is not regarded with overwhelming favor by the masses of her English subjects. She seems, in consequence, to give the young fellow all that majesty can bestow; but she is apparently overdoing the thing, and the popularity of the new son-in-law will hardly be achieved by the course she is taking.

THE BY-LAWS.

The Colonist is glad that some of the by-laws were defeated. While thankful for small favors, and pleased that the public lighting and drainage by-laws have been carried, yet we firmly believe it would have been a good thing for the city had every by-law been adopted. What reason influenced the voters in opposing the "barracks" by-law it is very difficult to understand. A new city gaol is imperatively required, and at once. The government will be tearing down the old structure on Bastion street just as soon as the new provincial gaol is completed. What is to become of our "vags," and chronic "drunks," and petty thieves when there is no "cooler" to place them in, is a problem which the 174 electors who voted "nay" should be required to solve. The success of the drainage by-law, which was carried by a majority of 24, the largest recorded for or against on any of the votes, is encouraging. It shows that our citizens recognize the necessity of a complete system of sewerage, and are prepared to expend $5000 in preliminary investigations so that the best system may be secured. It is not unlikely that many people, convinced that perfect sewerage should be provided before any further large expenditures were made on the streets, voted in accordance with their views and defeated the loan of $25,000 for the streets and sidewalks. But the councillors are answerable for the little interest taken in the vote, which accounts for the defeat of the by-laws. In a spirit of parsimony they called for tenders for advertising the by-laws, with the result that they went to a paper having about a baker's dozen subscribers. There are hundreds of people who knew nothing about the proposed vote until it was referred to in THE TIMES on Monday evening.

AUSTRALIAN MAIL SERVICE.

From Australia the following particulars are learned concerning what is generally known as the Australian mail service: SIR JULIUS VOGEL's proposal which were agreed to by the New Zealand Parliament, is as follows: That a fresh contract at $150,000 per annum should be called for for a period of three years, the tenders to be sent in by September 7. The service to be carried on by two steamers, the terminal point being at Auckland with a subsidiary line to Sydney. The voyage from San Francisco to Sydney is to be performed in eighteen days, which will ensure the delivery of English letters at the colonies in thirty-two days, a shorter period than to any one of the Australian colonies. Among the companies that are expected to tender for the service are JOHN ELDER & Co., of Glasgow, the Union Steamship Company of New Zealand, the New Zealand Shipping Company, the Pacific Mail Company, notwithstanding their avowed withdrawal, and the Oceanic Steamshipping Company, of San Francisco, who have sent a representative to New Zealand with full power to enter into a contract. The subsidy is insufficient for very large vessels, which would have to run with an almost empty freight cargo on account of the high tariff on American imports from Australia and New Zealand. But smaller vessels with equal steaming power would be able to run at a less cost. For this reason it is anticipated that the Union Steamship Company of New Zealand and the Oceanic Steamshipping Company of San Francisco are the most likely competitors for the service. Other things being equal the New Zealand government would naturally give the preference to their home line. It is anticipated, however, that the Oceanic Company will be enabled to underbid others on account of its trade connections with the Hawaiian kingdom, which would always insure full freights from Honolulu to San Francisco. In any event it is a matter for congratulation that the service is to be maintained, and to the New Zealand government San Francisco owes a debt of gratitude. The alteration from the original proposal from a five years' service to three years shows that the colonials anticipate a further reduction in the time of ocean travel, and that they propose to be alive to a future shortening of the period occupied for the conveyance of their mails and passengers.

SAID TO BE DISSATISFIED.

The Canada Presbyterian, Toronto, says that the influential elder and genial son of JOHN CALVIN, DR. W. C. GRAY, editor of the Interior, has been spending his holidays on the Pacific Coast. Like a true newspaper man, he wrote editorial correspondence for his journal while on his tour. Here is one thing he says about our people in British Columbia:

"In my contact with British Columbians, which was considerable, because I sought information from them, the fact came out from all of them with whom I conversed that there is a growing feeling of antipathy and bitterness against the Canadian Government."

Now, Doctor, tell us what kind of people you associated with out there. Did you come in contact with any contractors who had been defeated in an attempt to make a little money out of the country without giving any value for it? Did you rub against any disappointed office seekers? There are a few out there we understand. There must be a few thousand people in the United States just now who have "a growing feeling of antipathy and bitterness" against the United States Government. The new government could not give them all places. That is the reason they feel so.

King Tye Company.

With reference to the special notice in to-day's Colonist signed King Tye & Co., I would beg to inform the trade and public generally that I was not, as stated, discharged from business connected with that firm.

In May, 1884, I became manager in this firm and up to yesterday, when I tendered my resignation. It is easy to see that all transactions made by me personally, or under my signature as representative of the firm, must be valid, and for which King Tye Co. are responsible.

The sole cause of my resignation was a disagreement with my only resident partner.

IN LUCK AT LAST

BY WALTER BESANT.

CHAPTER III.—(Continued.)

"If he is young," she thought, "if he is young—and he is sure to be young—he will be very angry at having opened his mind to a girl"—it will be perceived that, although she knew so much mathematics, she was really very ignorant of the opposite sex, not to know that a young man likes nothing so much as the opening of his mind to a young lady. "If he is old he will be more humiliated still"—as if any man at any age was ever humiliated by confessing himself to a woman. "If he is a proud man, he will never forgive me. Indeed, I am sure that he can never forgive me, whatever kind of man he is. But I can do no more than tell him I am sorry. If he will not forgive me then, what more can I say? Oh, if he should be vindictive!"

When the clock began to strike the hour of 8, Iris lighted her candles, and before the pulsation of the last stroke had died away she heard the ringing of the house-bell.

The door was opened by her grandfather himself, and she heard his voice.

"Yes," he said, "you will find your tutor in the first floor front, alone. If you are inclined to be vindictive, when you hear all, please ring the bell for me."

The visitor mounted the stairs, and Iris, hearing his step, began to tremble and to shake for fear.

When the door opened she did not at first look up. But she knew that her pupil was there, and that he was looking for his tutor.

"Pardon me"—the voice was not unpleasant—"pardon me. I was directed to this room. I have an appointment with my tutor."

"I," said Iris, rising, for the time for confession had at length arrived, "if you are Mr. Arnold Arbuthnot, your appointment is, I believe, with me."

"It is with my tutor," he said.

"I am your tutor. My initials are I. A."

"I am your tutor. My initials are I. A."

The room was only lighted by two candles, but they showed him the hanging head and form of a woman, and he thought she looked young, judging by the outline. Her voice was sweet and clear.

"My tutor! You?"

"If you really are Mr. Arnold Arbuthnot, the gentleman who has corresponded with I. A. for the last two years on heraldry, and—and other things, I am your tutor."

She had made the dreaded confession. The rest would be easy. She even ventured to raise her eyes, and she perceived, with a sinking of the heart, that her estimate of her pupil's age was tolerably correct. He was a young man, apparently not more than five or six and twenty.

It now remained to be seen if he was vindictive.

As for the pupil, when he recovered a little from the blow of this announcement he saw before him a girl, quite young, dressed in a simple gray or drab colored stuff, which I have reason to believe is called Carmelite. The dress had a crimson kerchief arranged in folds over the front and a lace collar, and at first sight it made the beholder feel that, considered merely as a setting of face and figure, it was remarkably effective. Surely this is the true end and aim of all feminine adornment, apart from the elementary object of keeping one warm.

"I—I did not know," the young man said, after a pause, "I did not know at all that I was corresponding with a lady."

Here she knew her eyes again, and he observed that her eyes were very large and full of light—"eyes like the fishpools of Heshbon"—dove's eyes.

"I am very sorry," she said, meekly. "It was my fault."

He observed other things now, having regained the use of his senses. Thus he saw that she wore her hair, which was of a wonderful chestnut-brown color, parted at the side like a boy's, and that she had not committed the horrible enormity of cutting it short. He observed, too, that while her lips were quivering and her cheek was blushing her look was steadfast. Are dove's eyes, he asked himself, always steadfast?

"I ought to have told you long ago, when you began to write about—about yourself and other things, when I understood that you thought I was a man—oh, long ago I ought to have told you the truth!"

"It is wonderful!" said the young man, "it is truly wonderful!" He was thinking of the letters—long letters, full of sympathy, and a curious unworldly wisdom, which she had sent him in reply to his own, and he was comparing them with her youthful face, as one involuntarily compares a poet's appearance with his poetry—generally a disappointing thing to do, and always a foolish thing.

"I am very sorry," she repeated.

"Have you many pupils like myself?"

"I have several pupils in mathematics. It does not matter to them whether they are taught by a man or a woman. In heraldry I had only one—you."

He looked round the room. One end was occupied by shelves, filled with books; in one of the windows was a table, covered with papers and adorned with a type-writer, by means of which Iris carried on her correspondence. For a moment the unworthy thought crossed his mind that he had been, perhaps, artfully lured on by a Siren for his destruction. Only for a moment, however, because she raised her face and met his gaze again, with eyes so frank and innocent that he could not doubt them. Besides, there was the most convincing of all proofs—a woman's tears.

"Then," he said, "I am to consider myself as dismissed?"

"Yes," she said, "you will find your letters on the table. I have put them together. I am sorry that I have deceived you so long, and to beg you to forgive me; and to say that, of course, there is an end to our correspondence."

"Thank you. It shall be as you desire. Exactly," he repeated, "as you desire."

He ought to have gone at once. There was nothing more to say. Yet he lingered, holding the letters in his hand.

"To write these letters," he said, "has been for a long time one of my greatest pleasures, partly because I felt that I was writing to a friend, and so wrote in full trust and confidence, partly because they procured me a reply—in the shape of your letters. Must I take back these letters of mine?"

She made no answer.

FARM AND GARDEN

The Farmers' Birds.

The farmer and fruit-grower who has cultivated habits of observation, will soon come to know those birds of most value as insect destroyers. Wrens devour great numbers of cut-worms. The crow blackbird picks up any larva it may find in the furrow. So would crows if allowed. They will neither of them pull corn if some of the soaked grain is strewed over the planted field. The robin is a pest among small fruit, when ripening, but at all other seasons a friend to the fruit-growers, and at all times beneficial to the farmer and gardener.

Of fruit eaters, robin thrushes, catbirds, bluejays, cherry birds, orioles and others of that class are well known. They never injure the grain farmer, and the horticulturist only during the fruit season.

Barn owls are inveterate mousers, and in summer time feed on night-flying moths and beetles. They are valuable in destroying mature insects, thus preventing the laying of their eggs. The hawks eat mice, frogs, grasshoppers, snakes, lizards, beetles, small birds and various vermin, according to their species. The crow is an omnivorous feeder, but eats less corn than any other bird. The proportion of hawks that kill chickens, are not more in number, relatively, than are man-eating tigers.

The food of blackbirds consist of cut-worms, wire-worms, and the larvæ of destructive butterflies.

The climbers include woodpeckers and cuckoos. Nearly all are exclusive insect-eaters. The sapsucker alone is destructive to trees. The yellow-billed cuckoo—common in the northwest—is especially destructive to the American tent caterpillar.

Wrens and bluebirds are exclusive insect-eaters, the bluebirds taking canker worms and codlin moths. The white-breasted nuthatch and American creeper live exclusively on tree insects. The finch, lark and plover tribes eat insect larvæ. The meadow lark seeks underground larvæ.

The plover eats grasshoppers, beetles, gnats, etc. All the warblers destroy a great variety of small insects. The land game birds, although classed as granniverous, eat more largely of insects than other food.

Birds of doubtful utility—so classed—to the horticulturist, but not injurious to the farmer except the bluejay—which destroys the nests of small birds of great utility—are: Robin, catbird, brown thrush, redheaded woodpecker, shrike, or butcher bird, and the bluejay. There are really but two, the bluejay and the oriole—if we except the hawks and larger owls—of this class that are injurious to the farmer. A decent man will not kill singing birds, and game birds only in their season. Let the boys of the farm be instructed in the same direction.

Warbles in Cattle.

[American Dairyman.]

One disagreeable effect of pasturing cows is that many of them get warbles in their backs, which are exceedingly irritating to them, and certainly present a very ugly appearance. In beef cattle these grubs greatly injure the value of the hides when the cattle are killed. From The London Farmer we take the following: "I had each cow dusted along the back with sulphur. The result is, that only two cows had one solitary deposit each, the others are perfectly free, while there are several in the backs of their calves." This is probably a good suggestion, and is an easily applied preventive, as sulphur can be obtained in a pulverized form, and we advise those who are troubled with these insects to try this remedy. A mild solution of carbolic acid applied along the back of the cow would probably repel the attacks of the fly. Mercurial ointment, which is often recommended, is very dangerous, especially if the cows get wet after applying it. Sulphur and carbolic acid well diluted are innocent remedies. Mercury is dangerous stuff to handle.

Raspberries and Blackberries.

The best method for growing raspberries and blackberries is without stakes, pinching off the tips of young canes as soon as they get about two feet high. If the grower waits until the canes are four or five feet high, and then cuts off a foot or more, he checks the growth and loses some of the best buds. An experienced grower cuts back the canes of red raspberries and shortens in the side branches early in the spring, thus securing more and better fruit than if the entire canes were left on, and giving better opportunity for the pickers to move about without breaking off the ripe berries.

Liquid Manure for the Flower Garden.

Liquid manure has a wonderful effect upon garden plants, and may be used both in the vegetable and in the ornamental departments. The best time to apply it is just before a shower. For border flowering plants it must be weak. A tablespoonful of guano, or a small handful of fowl droppings, to a gallon of water will make it strong enough. Soapsuds may be used in the same way.

Oats and Hens.

Oats make hens poor, and often pack in their crops, and they die. They clog up the pipe leading from the crop to the gizard, and, when this is the case, the hens get no nourishment. Another thing—the skins or hulls of the oats clog up the gizard and prevent its action. When the crop is passed, it is perfectly safe to cut into it and remove the contents, and then sew it up.

Raspberry Vinegar.

Pour one quart of vinegar over three quarts of raspberries, and let stand three days. Strain them, and to each pint of juice add one pound of sugar, boil for ten minutes, skim closely, and bottle up. A few spoonfuls in a glass of cold spring or ice water make a most refreshing summer drink.

Things to Do and to Know.

An Illinois firm is manufacturing a sheep treading power churn.

The average wealth of Massachusetts farmers is said to be about $2,530 per capita.

Jumbo was a 3-year-old New York state ram that produced 107 pounds and 3 ounces of wool at three clips. And yet he died of consumption.

Some years ago the Danish government established schools of butter making. Result: Danish butter commands the highest price in the British market.

A writer in The London Garden says he knows of no better way of securing a heavy crop of peaches and nectarines than by putting a colony of bees with them when the trees are in bloom.

On a farm near Boston the new milk is subjected at once to the action of a centrifugal cream separator, extracted in a few minutes and served in the city that same morning at breakfast.

Two cents worth of common green copperas dissolved in a quart of hot water makes a first-class disinfectant. It removes bad smells like a charm. It should be mixed in whitewash, sprinkled upon cellarways and floors, and poured into vaults and outhouses.

Food Fashions at Summer Hotels.

[St. Nicholas Press.]

At some of the seaside hotels now some of the small entrees are served in little paper ships and canoes. At Lenox pie is awfully fashionable, and pumpkin pie is considered the very swell thing. When it cannot be had tarts take its place in popularity! At the best summer hotels everywhere there is a tendency to do away with the use of French on the bill of fare. At most of the very fashionable watering place hotels cheese is now served at dinner just before dessert. At Mt. Desert fried herring is the principal article on the bill of fare at all the hotels, and served three times a day.

Miss Cleveland: No gift can pass between human creatures so divine as a recognition, for it touches upon the creative.

Questions Answered.

Ask the most eminent physician

Of any school, what is the best thing in the world for allaying all irritation of the nerves, and curing all forms of nervous complaints, giving natural, childlike refreshing sleep always?

And they will tell you unhesitatingly

"Some form of Hops!!!"

CHAPTER I.

Ask any or all of the most eminent physicians:

"What is the only remedy that can be relied on to cure all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs; Bright's disease, diabetes, retention, or inability to retain urine, and all the diseases and ailments peculiar to Women?"

And they will tell you explicitly and emphatically, "Buchu!!!"

Ask the same physicians

What is the most reliable and surest cure for all liver diseases or dyspepsia, constipation, indigestion, biliousness, malaria, fever, ague, &c.," and they will tell you

Mandrake! or Dandelion!!!!

Hence when these remedies are combined with others equally valuable,

And compounded into Hop Bitters, such a wonderful and mysterious curative power is developed, which is so varied in its operations that no disease or ill health can possibly exist or resist its power, and yet it is Harmless for the most frail woman, weakest invalid or smallest child to use.

CHAPTER I.

Patients"

"Almost dead or nearly dying"

For years, and given up by physicians, of Bright's and other kidney diseases, liver complaints, severe coughs, called consumption, have been cured.

Women gone nearly crazy!!

From agony of neuralgia, nervousness, wakefulness, and various diseases peculiar to women.

People drawn out of shape from excruciating pangs of rheumatism, inflammatory and chronic or suffering from scrofula.

Erysipelas,

Saltrheum, blood poisoning, dyspepsia indigestion, and, in fact, almost all diseases frail Nature is heir to.

Have been cured by Hop Bitters, proof of which can be found in every neighborhood in the known world.

☞ None genuine without a bunch of green Hops on the white label. Shun all the vile, poisonous stuff with "Hop" or "Hops" in their name.

GRAND

Colonial Exhibition!

IN LONDON, ENGLAND, 1886.

Fifty-four Thousand Feet Reserved for Canada.

First Royal Exhibition Commission since 1862.

THE Colonial and Indian Exhibition to be held in London, England, commencing May 1st, 1886, is intended to be on a scale of great magnitude, having for object to mark an epoch in the relations of all the parts of the British Empire with each other.

In order to give becoming significance to the Exhibition, the Commission is framed for the holding of this Exhibition, for the first time since 1862, and His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales has been appointed President by Her Majesty.

The very large space of 54,000 square feet has been allotted to the Dominion of Canada by command of the President, Her Royal Highness.

This Exhibition is to be purely Colonial and Indian, and no competition from the United Kingdom or from foreign nations will be permitted, the object being to present to the world at large what the Colonies can do!

The grand best opportunity ever offered to Canada is thus afforded to show the distinguished place she occupies, by the progress she has made in AGRICULTURE, in HORTICULTURE, in the INDUSTRIAL and FINE ARTS, in the MANUFACTURING INDUSTRIES, in the NEWEST IMPROVEMENTS IN MANUFACTURING MACHINERY and IMPLEMENTS, in PUBLIC WORKS by MODELS and DESIGNS; also in an adequate display of her vast resources in the FISHERIES, and in FOREST and MINERAL wealth, and also in SURVEYS.

All Canadians of all parties and classes are invited to come forward and vie with each other in endeavoring on this great occasion to put Canada in her true place as the premier colony of the British Empire, and to maintain her proper position before the world.

Every farmer, every producer, and every manufacturer, has interest in sending, having been already done, specimens of their industry, as success always follows such efforts.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

While the TIMES is always pressed to give publicity to the views of correspondents on any question of interest to the public, provided facts are given, couched in unobjectionable language, we wish it to be understood that we do not hold ourselves responsible for the views expressed by the writers thereof.

Nor can we give room to duplicates of letters that have appeared in our contemporaries either in this city or elsewhere in the province. Correspondents, therefore, will save time and trouble in preparing such for THE TIMES, as they will be rejected.

Our space is valuable, and brevity, as far as possible, should be observed in writing on any topic, and on ONE SIDE of the sheet only.

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—Before purchasing Real Estate or insuring your life, see Rand Bros.

—Several hundred Victorians went up to New Westminster this morning, to be present at the Provincial Exhibition.

—Steamer Barbara Boscowitz will sail next Tuesday morning for Fort Simpson and way ports.

—A billiard match will be played at the Ship Inn, Esquimalt, next Friday evening.

—Divine services will be held in the Synagogue this evening and Thursday evening at 7.30 p. m.

—M. P. P. Ellis, of the Grand Pacific, writes to the Colonist correcting a mistake of that journal as to the residence of several would-be robbers.

—Mr. McDonald, the discoverer of petroleum, and Mr. Geo. Taylor, an expert in the business, went up to the location of the deposit this morning.

—A. Lewis & Co. have received a fine lot of heating stoves by the Queen of the Pacific and are selling them at reduced rates. All wanting such articles should give them a call.

—Mr. Fletcher, P. O. Inspector, gives notice that the letter boxes will be placed in position and collections made therefrom commencing Oct. 1. Full information as to position, etc., is given in another column.

—A car load of Manitoba butter was shipped last week by Feilde, Haffner & Co., of Winnipeg, for this province. It contained 23,000 pounds, and is the first shipment of butter in bulk from the prairie province.

—The Scotch Thistle Dancing Club, at a meeting last Friday night, elected the following officers: J. Bassell, president; Geo. Bishop, secretary; Wm. Scott, treasurer; Wm. Collister, floor manager. The first meeting for practice will be next Friday week.

—The race at the roller rink last night between Messrs. Lewis and Chaplin resulted in an easy victory for the former. Mr. Chaplin skated well for a number of rounds, but when about a third of the distance had been traversed he began to show signs of exhaustion, and gradually fell behind.

—Sir Charles Tupper and party did not leave for the mainland this morning, as was expected, a change in the arrangements having been made last night. They will go to Nanaimo to-morrow on the Alexander, in the evening to Barrard Inlet, and on Friday morning will leave Port Moody for the east.

—The lying telegram of the press agent in this city (St. David, the untruthful, of the Colonist) referred to in yesterday's TIMES, appears also in the Oregonian, and doubtless it will go abroad in every paper on the Pacific Coast. It is a recognized rule with this scandal-monger never to correct a misstatement or apologize for a mistake. He is simply untruthful because it is his nature so to be.

—Letters are detained for postage at this P. O. addressed to: Messrs. Lun Shang & Co., Yale, B. C.; Mrs. R. Roberts, Keefer's Island; Wah Hing Choug, Walla Walla, W. T.; Miss E. Emerson, New Dungeness, W. T.; Henry Fry, Jr., Maple Bay; Mrs. Calvert, Four Mile House; A. Onderdonk, Yale, B. C.; Jas. McGougan, Summerside, P. E. I.; R. Keeler, Esquimalt, B. C.; D. T. Pickard, Seattle, W. T. Chas. Jno. Spencer, (of Brockley, Eng.), Victoria, B. C.

—The scenery from Calgary on into the Rocky mountains is beautiful beyond description, and rises into a grandeur that is not surpassed by the Alps. We shall be much surprised if when the road is completed to the Pacific coast it does not become one of the most popular routes to be found for summer tourists, combining as it does the grandest scenery with the finest sport, the smoothest drives and the healthiest atmosphere to be found on the face of the earth.

—The Geo. E. Starr brought freight for the following: A Cowan, A Gilmore, A H Weble, C Strauss, D E Campbell, F S Chaperon, F Norris, H Bay Co, B Gribble, J Cunningham, J H Place, J Stewart, J H Todd, J Weiler, J Brown, J Wilson, J Luker, J B Ferguson, J Abrams, J Harvey, J Eickhoff, L Pither, Langley & Co, N McPhee, R Ward & Co, R Maynard, S Benvin, S J Pitts, W & J Wilson, W Allen, W H Redmond, W J Jeffrie, W G Cameron, Hamilton Powder Co.

—On an information sworn to by Mr E. M. Johnson, W. Cumyow was arrested last night by Office Walker, and is still in the city gaol. The charge is similar to that in the first case. In court to-day Mr. E. M. Johnson said: "The bail for Cumyow's appearance had been surrendered as there was some talk of Cumyow decamping; in fact Mr. Theo. Davie told me this himself." Some sharp words followed between Messrs. Davie and E. M. Johnson, the former winding up with saying that he would not believe E. M. Johnson even if he swore on a pile of bibles as high as the roof.

A Limit Fixed.

The anti-Chinese crusade at Seattle is coming to a head very rapidly. Another enthusiastic convention was held on Saturday night, at which a resolution was carried fixing the 1st of November as the day on which all Chinamen are to be out of the city and district. Should they not go on the day named, it does not said what would be done, but the probability is that there would be more bloody work.

Robbery Last Night.

The store of Mr. Charles Morton, on Government street, was broken into last night, between nine and ten o'clock, and a large quantity of goods stolen. The thieves effected an entrance by the back door by smashing one of the panels and undoing the two top fastenings and forcing the others. The proceedings at the police court this morning will furnish additional particulars.

Bal for Granite Creek.

A party of forty or fifty Chinese miners have been fitting out to-day for Granite Creek. They are taking plenty of supplies, and apparently are going there to stay. The news from there already indicates that those people are securing the best claims by purchase. If the white men are not alive to their interests, the Similkam en will become a Chinese camp.

See John Weiler's new advertisem ent to another column.

The Loan By-Laws.

As was intimated in THE TIMES yesterday, very little interest was manifested in the polling on the loan by-laws. In Johnson Street Ward there were 198 votes cast. James Bay Ward; 143, and Yates Street Ward, 83. Whether it is that the ratepayers of James Bay Ward are of a more liberal spirit than those of other wards in regard to the expenditure of public money is not known, but it is a significant fact that that ward polled a majority in favor of every by-law, while the other wards each gave a majority against every by-law. So that it is really by the grace of the James Bay Ward ratepayers that the Council is allowed to raise any money by loans. The following is the vote on the different by-laws:

STREET LOAN BY-LAW.

	FOR	AGAINST
James Bay Ward	73	59
Johnson Street Ward	54	66
Yates Street Ward	30	46
Total	157	171
Majority against		14

PUBLIC LIGHTING LOAN BY-LAW.

	FOR	AGAINST
Johnson Street Ward	62	64
James Bay Ward	77	62
Yates Street Ward	38	43
Total	178	169
Majority for	8

POLICE BARRACKS LOAN BY-LAW.

	FOR	AGAINST
Johnson Street Ward	62	67
James Bay Ward	77	63
Yates Street Ward	35	44
Total	168	174
Majority against		6

STREET GUTTERS LOAN BY-LAW.

	FOR	AGAINST
Johnson Street Ward	60	68
James Bay Ward	77	61
Yates Street Ward	36	45
Total	173	174
Majority against		1

DRAINAGE LOAN BY-LAW.

	FOR	AGAINST
Johnson Street Ward	61	63
James Bay Ward	84	52
Yates Street Ward	36	42
Total	181	157
Majority for	24

The result of the voting will be to allow the Council to raise $16,000 for the better lighting of the city, and $5000 to obtain plans and specifications for the drainage of the city.

Reception of His Excellency.

A public meeting was held in the City Hall last evening to consider the proper steps to be taken to give a fitting reception to His Excellency the Governor General. Councillor Earle took the chair in the absence of his worship. The committee recommend, that the day of His Excellency's arrival be a public holiday, that the Mayor and Council present an address of welcome in some convenient place, either in the open air or a large hall, that the government officials, the schools, and various societies, the volunteers, and citizens generally, should be requested to assist in making the reception a success, that a deputation should wait upon the senior naval officer, and ask his kind co-operation upon the occasion; and that a public banquet be tendered to His Excellency, and the admission placed at such a price as would ensure a large attendance. A programme based on the foregoing was adopted. Mr. D. R. Harris was added to the committee.

The Theater Comique.

A somewhat smaller audience than on the first two nights greeted the third appearance of "Only a Farmer's Daughter Company." The play presented was the emotional comedy of "Marguerite, or Was She Right." Miss Blanche Curtisse taking the leading role. This lady is an excellent elocutionist, and a very careful actress in every particular. Her support was strong, and some of the characterizations were irresistibly comical and laughter-provoking. The gas went down for a few minutes in the middle of the performance, which was the only disagreeable incident in the performance. The company will appear again to-night. Reserved seats may be secured at Waitt & Co.'s, prices as usual. Mr. Cyrs is striving to cater to the theater-loving taste of our people, and when he is doing so successfully, should meet with the success that is his due.

Anti-Chinese Meeting.

The Anti-Chinese Union held a meeting in Harmony Hall last evening. The meeting was well attended, and several resolutions were moved and carried. Mr. McClimont spoke forcibly on the importance of this Anti-Chinese movement, and urged upon them the necessity of close co-operation and energy in the work, to ensure success. He said organized capital was a tyrant, and it was their, the workingmen's business, to fight against it, not as a mob, but as an organized mass, which has often proved irresistable. Let more open air meetings be held, speak boldly and stir up the slumbering minds outside to join you in your great works. You cannot raise the moral or social standard of the Chinese; you must therefore struggle against their influence, or sink to the same level with them.

Beginning to Realize It.

The Oregonian is beginning to realize that the C. P. R. will soon be a factor of enormous power in trade relations and in the progress and settlement of the country. It says: "It is probable that the completion of the Canadian Pacific will have a much greater effect on the future of the Northwest than many dream of. The Canadian government will make very low rates to the coast in order to get the territory along the road settled up. This will force other transcontinental lines to make low rates and will attract a flow of emigrants to Oregon and Washington.

Elegant Accommodations.

The two private cars of the C. P. railway in which Sir C. Tupper and party came from Ottawa to Portland, have since been taken east to Winnipeg, and thence west again on the C. P. R. to the end of the track where they will await the arrival of the distinguished party. Each car contains three large staterooms a kitchen on a grand scale, and a sitting and dining room. The steward was delighted with the market on the Pacific coast, and stored his larder with quail, pheasant and duck, and laid in a supply of fruit.

Lulu Island.

Considerable improvements have been made in this part of the province during the past season. Crops have been very good, vegetables, etc., having grown to an immense size. Mr. T. D. Lindsay, a prominent settler, has erected a $1000 house and has let the contract for three miles of dyking, the work to be completed within two months. Mr. E. A. Sharpe, formerly superintendent of the insane asylum when in Victoria, has just finished a $1200 house and has the greater part of 300 acres dyked and under cultivation.

Misses and Children's Autumn and Winter Mantles, 20 to 40 Inches long, from $1 25 each, at the CITY HOUSE.

COPPER PLATES for Calling Cards, or Crests.

POLICE COURT.

(Before Edwin Johnson, Esq., S. M.)

W. Cumyow on the second charge of forgery, made on the 26th March last.

Mr. E. M. Johnson asked for a remand till Tuesday next, to admit of evidence being produced.

Mr. Theo. Davie requested that as this was an additional charge in the first case, the original remand be adhered to.

The original remand was granted, viz.: till Monday, 12th October, on condition that bail be given for $250, in one or two sureties. The case was remanded in absence of bail for one week.

Fan Tuck Ten, on a charge of being in unlawful possession of a cheque on the Bank of British Columbia for $250. Remanded till to-morrow.

Gee Won, charged with frequenting North Park street with intent to commit a felony. The prisoner was discharged.

HOUSE-BREAKING AND ROBBERY.

Frank Holloway and Alfred Townsend, charged with house-breaking and robbery.

Sergeant Sheppard sworn: Shortly after 3 o'clock this morning I went on board Eliza Anderson; I saw both prisoners on the lower deck; I arrested Townsend on a charge of breaking into a house on James Bay on the 11th of the month and stealing a silver watch, revolver and other articles. I took him inside the jail, and on searching found part of the articles taken from Mr. Morton's store on his person. I cautioned the prisoner. He told me they had broke into Morton's store, on Government street, himself and Frank Holloway. He said you had better go and get him; I found him at the end of the gang plank as the boat was about to leave. On searching Holloway I found more of the stolen property and $2.75 in money. I asked prisoner if he had any more of this kind of goods; he said no, that Townsend had taken the most of it to carry. I asked him several times if he had not during my absence hidden part of the goods; he said he had not, he never had any more. Townsend said it was Holloway who broke in the back door.

Mr. Morton, sworn—On arriving at my store this morning I found the till had been taken out, and was on the top of the counter; the case containing the gold articles was always kept locked, and the key was placed at the bottom of the till, the two money receivers sliding over it. The case was unlocked. I identify the articles produced as taken from this case. The cutlery and magnifying glasses, and tortoise shell purses, scent bottle, parcel scale, tape measure, lady's fan, and compass were in another case. The brush and comb were taken from a set from another counter. The match boxes were open on the counter. The money produced exactly corresponds with that which was taken from my till last night, except a half dollar and two dimes which I do not claim. From the appearance of the back door force must have been used to open it. The back door was secured by bolts and an ordinary lock and a little fastner, all of which were fastened last night before closing. Two of the bolts near the top were unfastened through a panel which was smashed sufficiently to admit a hand and the others forced. I saw an officer pick up a file from the back yard which I think must have been used to force open the door. The long ladder which I use in the store to get to the high shelves was taken out to the back yard and had been used to get on the roof of the back premises.

Miles Simpson, sworn—I saw Frank Holloway last night and bought from him some pencil cases, two knives and a match box. A boy named Miller gave him six bits for one in my presence. I did not see the money. He did not tell me where he got them. I think there was somebody with them. On hearing of the robbery I had the articles mentioned in my pocket, and took the articles to the police station and gave them to Mr. Langley. Constable Grant corroborated the evidence of Sergeant Sheppard and Mr. Morton.

Mr. Walls appeared for Townsend, and asked that the case be remanded till Friday, which was done.

The court then adjourned till two o'clock.

John Fisher, charged with supplying whiskey to an Indian, fined $50, and $1 costs, or in default three months imprisonment.

Harry McMullin, a vagrant and opium fiend, was sent down for two months at hard labor.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Supt. Roycraft is recovering from his severe attack of illness at Hope.

John Owens, of Portland is at the Occidental.

Messrs. J. B. Leighton, D. Blair and J. G. Cooney left this morning for Granite Creek.

Messrs A Thomson, and R Sims, of Portland, and Mr James Brady, and Mr Frank Brewster, of Winnipeg, are at the Driard.

Lieut Thos Cochrane, R.N., a member of the noble family of Dundonald, arrived at the Driard to-day on a visit to British Columbia. He is much interested in the country, and shall take back with him a good account of it. Lord Cochrane, of Chilian fame, was great uncle to the above gentleman.

Passengers by the Geo. E. Starr to-day were: Audrich Johns, Fanfield and wife, Larry, G T Purser, P McQuellan, W Gilbert Charlton, H Daniels, H Clinton, J Owens, Miss Beaumont, Mrs M J Phillips Miss Muckle, A L Reynolds, Wm Scoone.

Exhibition Notes.

Mr. Geo. Petrin, of this city, took up a number of coops of chickens to the provincial exhibition.

Mr. D. W. Higgins and Miss Higgins, are at New Westminster during the exhibition.

Messrs. W. Russell, A. B. Gray, Mrs. Shotbolt and Mrs. C. Hayward, Miss Mansell and many others went up this morning.

J. Todd, of Cedar Hill, took up a splendid stallion, which will be certain to carry off a prize.

About twenty head of cattle and half a dozen sheep were taken up by the Yosemite for entrance in the live stock competition.

Mr. and Mrs. Benoit and Mr. W. McKenzie are also among the number attracted to New Westminster to-day.

Mr. J. C. McLagan, of THE TIMES, and Mrs. McLagan, went up to New Westminster this morning.

To Portland and Return, $10.

During the holding of the Mechanics' Fair in the city of Portland, the O.R. &N. Co. have decided to issue tickets, good for ten days, for the round trip from Victoria for the sum of $10. The liberality of the company should induce a large number of our citizens to visit the Oregon metropolis. Mr. Robert Irving, the Co.'s popular agent in this city, will be pleased to furnish all necessary particulars on application to him.

The Letter Boxes.

After October 1st the new letter boxes will be in position at the following places: Corner of Store and Discovery streets, at the junction of Government and Douglas streets, corner of Quadra and North Park, corner of Cook and Fort, corner of Menzies and Quebec. Letters will be collected twice daily and once on Sunday.

8 lb Woolen Blankets $3 per pair, at Cheap Variety Store, Masonic Building, Douglas street.

The Loan By-laws.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES.

DEAR SIR:—Would you kindly inform me through your columns this evening how the Loan By-laws were acted on. The information supplied by the Colonist is such that it would puzzle a "Philadelphia lawyer."

SUBSCRIBER.

Victoria 30th Sept., 1885.

[If the Colonist finds a statement or report right, it will turn it round and make it wrong out of pure cussedness of character. Frank Campbell bulletined the returns correctly, and the editor, anxious to make them look original, stood on his head and read them upside down. The result was that he carried four out of the five by-laws, according to his arrangement of his figures.]

Empire Brewery.

HENNING PETERS, late of the Lion Brewery, is now prepared to supply the trade and families with all kinds of Beer, Ale and Porter.

The Brewery is situated on Spring Ridge, and is built over a well of pure, ever running spring water. This fact enables me to manufacture the very finest brands, equal to any imported Ale, Beer and Porter.

The machinery used is of latest pattern, the ingredients are pure water, malt and hops, and a trial is only necessary to convince that the brands are the finest manufactured in the Province.

All orders for city supply, or for shipment to Island or Mainland points will receive prompt attention and a satisfactory article furnished.
